SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH
NEWSLETTER
FEBRUARY 2012

FROM THE PASTOR

Hi Friends,

I like to read Romans. Samuel Coleridge, the great English literary giant, called it "the profoundest piece of writing in existence." Martin Luther, the reformer, wrote, "This epistle (Romans) is the chief part of the New Testament, and the very purest gospel, which indeed deserves that a Christian should not only know it word for word by heart, but deal with it daily as with the daily bread of the soul, for it can never be read or considered too much or too well, and the more it is handled the more delightful it becomes and the better it tastes."

Personally, I think Romans could be properly called "The Book that shook the world." It seems like, historically speaking, every time there is a major revival and reformation among God's church, the book of Romans is the major catalyst used by the Holy Spirit to turbocharge that movement. Not by itself, of course. Martin Luther also preached from the Psalms and other passages in his discovery of the simple truth that "The just shall live by faith." Romans, however, is the book that gives us (me at least) the clearest and most comprehensive insight on how to be a Christian, how to live an ever-increasingly victorious life over sin, how to be accepted as holy and righteous before a just God.

A few early mornings ago, I was laying in my bed thinking about a particular spiritual struggle I've been having, when the Lord flashed a scripture verse into my mind: It was Romans 6:14, which states, "For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law, but under grace." A short verse, but packed with power. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are privileged to be released from the bondage of sin. This freedom is not achieved by heroically striving by my efforts to "do better," or by gritting my teeth and saving myself from doing sin by sheer force of willpower. Rather it is given to us by letting ourselves be placed in a state of grace – God's grace – which is powerful enough to change the vilest and most stubborn of sinners. (That's you and me.)

It's only as we learn what it means to be "under grace," and not "under law" that we will enjoy the personal revival and reformation God desires each of us to have.

May God help us toward a grace-filled and gracious faith each day as we walk with Him.
