*Therefore said He unto them,
The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few:
pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest,
that He would send forth labourers into His harvest.
Luke 10:2*

SPIRITUAL SPOT

Has another person ever said or done something that displeased or offended you? Chances are your answer is “Yes.” Whenever that happens, what are we supposed to do?

“If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican.” Matthew 18:15–17.

This solution is not always an easy one. In fact, most of the time it’s difficult and unpleasant. But Jesus’ instructions must be followed to prevent backbiting, gossip, and unnecessary problems between other people. It would be best for you to first pray and make sure the matter is really that important. Then follow our Lord’s instructions or hold your peace.

“If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.” Luke 17:3.
